In compliance with a custom as old as the Government itself, I appear before you to address you briefly, and to take in your presence the oath prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, taken by the President before he enters upon the execution of his office. I do not consider it necessa of the southern confederacy; and as she may ry at present for me to discuss those matters of be the last to join, once the partner of its administration about which there is no especia fortunes, she will be the last to leave it, come weal or woe.

Such is my unionism; and I believe I tion their property and their peace and persons security are to be endangered. There has bee speak the sentiment of my State. Her Legislature, without distinction of party, have almost unanimously resolved that, in the event force is used against the States which have withdrawn from the Union, Kentucky will resist. Again, I answer, she is for peace, compromise and the Union.

If the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. Stevens], who just now said he was for collecting the revenue in southern ports, for reinforcing and recapturing southern forts from the possession of "robbers and traitors," as he fiercely brands them—foreshadows the policy of the incoming Administration, then placed in the platform for my acceptance, as a this matter is beyond accommodation, and law to themselves and to me, the clear and em-

I now reiterate these sentiments, and in doing so, I only press upon the public attention the most conclusive evidence of which the case is susceptible, that the property, peace, and security of no sections filled with blood, hate and vengeance, will be made, and it will only be crossed for purposes of murder and rapine.

Do you Republicans think you can conquer the South? I tell you if you achieve it is given to all the States when lawfully demanded the South? I tell you, if you achieve it, it will be a harren victory. Supress you will be a barren victory. Suppose you deci-mate the population of the confederated the delivering of fugitives from service or labor States; suppose you burn their homes, and The clause I now read is as plainly written in the

To the proposition, then, that slaves, whose cases You must exterminate them before your task come within the terms of this clause, and shall be lelivered up, their oaths are unanimous. Now, i or abolish them. I call the action of the confederated States of the South revolution. Revolution does not necessarily involve the idea of battles and bloodshed to make it successful. The southern government stands before us and the world, a living fact; and if we would not madly throw away all the power and glory and prosperity we have achieved as a people, you must deal with it as such, by recognizing its independence, and not madly and suicidally attempting its destruction.

Kentucky's loyalty to the Union will not be preserved at the dear price of aiding men in war on the South who denounce he in itsitutions, aid in the escape of her property, deny her that comity due her, and wish to destroy her equality as a sovereign member of the Confederacy. Never, sir, never! And if the dreaded necessity of her leaving you persist in denying what her entreaties are refused, and you persist in denying what her entreaties are refused, and you persist in denying what her entreates are refused, and you persist in denying what her entreaties are refused, and you persist in denying what is the leave that the derivation of in the peclaration of Independence that I shall rest her vindication, so far as I may have to defend it. tion, and if it continues to execute all the express provisions of our national Constitution the Union will endure forever, it being impossible to destroy it except by some action not provided for in the instrument itself. Again, if the United States be not a Government proper, but an association of States in the quature of contract merely, can it as a contract be peaceably unmade unless by all the parties who made it? One party to a contract may violate or break it, so to speak, but does it not require all to lawfully rescind it. Descending from these general principles, we find the proposition that in legal contemplation the Union is perpetual, confirmed by the history of the Union itself. The Union is much older than the Constitution. It was formed in fact by the Articles of Association in 1774. It was matured and continued by the Declaration of Independence in 1776. It was further matured, on the faith of the then thirteen States, expressly plight. ence in 1776. It was further matured, on the faith of the then thirteen States, expressly plighted and engaged, that it should be perpetuated by the articles of confederation in 1778; and finally, in 1787, one of the declared objects for ordaining and establishing the Constitution was to form a more perfect Union by one or by a part only of the States. If it be lawfully possible that the Union is less than before the Constitution, having lost the vital element of perpetuity, it follows, from these views, that no State, upon its own mere motion, can lawfully get out of the Union; that resolutions and ordinances to that effect are legally void, and that acts of violence within any State or States against the authority of the United States are insurrectionary or revolutionary, according to einsurances, favor rather than oppose a fair opportunity being offered the people to act upon it. surrectionary or revolutionary, according to cir-cumstances. I therefore consider that, in view I will venture to add that to me the Convention of the Constitution and laws, the Union is un-broken; and to the extent of my ability shall take amendment to originate with the people themcare (as the Constitution itself expressly enjoins upon me) that the laws of the Union be faithfully executed in all the States. Doing this, I deem it to be only a simple duty on my part, and I shall perform it, so far as practicable, unless my rightful masters—the American people—shill withhold the requisite means, or in some authoritative manner, direct the contrary. The trust this

The power confided to me will be used to hold, occupy, and possess the property and places belonging to the Government, t collect duties and imports; but beyond what may be necessary for these objects, there will be no using of force against or among people anywhere where hostility to the United States in any interior locality shall be so great and so universal as to prevent competent resident citizens from hold-ing Federal offices. There will be no attempt to ct. While the strict legal right may exist in the government to enforce the exercise of these offices, the attempt to do so would be so irritating and so nearly impracticable with all, that I deem it better to forego for a time the uses of such offices. The mails, unless repelled, will continue to be furnished in all points of the Union, so far as possible. The people everywhere shall have that sense of perfect security which the most favorable calm thoughts and reflection dictate. All the vital rights of minorities and of individuals are so plainly assured to them by affirmations and negotiations, guarantees and prohibitions in the Constitution, that controversies never arise concerning them. But no organic law can be framed with a provision specifically applicable to every question which may occur in practical administration. No foresight can ancipate, nor any document of reasonable length ntain, express provisions for all possible ques-ons. Shall fugitives from labor be surrendered by National or State authority? The Constitution does not expressly say. May Congress prohibit slavery in the Territories? The Constitution does not expressly say. Must Congress protect slavery in the Territories? The Constitution does not letter of the 3d inst., and it is impossible not expressly say. Whenever questions of this class spring up in our controversies, and we divide upon them into majorities and minorities, if the mirrority will not acquiesce the majority must or the government must cease. EIGHTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

For Congress: JOHN J. CRITTENDEN.

We are authorized to announce Hon. Sherrod Williams as a candidate for Judge of the Sixth Judicial District of Kentucky, in place of Judge Thomas E. Bramlette, re-attention to the proceedings of the meeting would be no time left for Senator Johnson of the farmers of Franklin and Woodford to reply. That was gosephy all over. But country, a common blood and common in counties, which we publish in another it came to an end at last. The speech of tersts, from being dragged into an immoral column. We are glad that the bone and sinew, the real producers, the men most interested in the present crisis, have at last at length rid of both of these worthies. Ar aroused themselves. Let the farmers and cades ambo! workingmen of the whole country arise in their might and crush out the political fillibusters who have brought the country to the very verge of ruin. This crisis has been brought about by politicians but the farmers and workingmen have to pay the cost of it.

Mr. Lincoln's Inaugural.

We publish to-day the telegraphic report of the President's Inaugural Address. It is evidently most wretchedly reported, and on that subject the Louisville Journal of yesterday remarks as follows :-

THE INAUGURAL .- A more disgraceful botch of telegraphic transmission has never come to our knowledge, than that sent from Washington today, purporting to be Mr. Lincoln's Inaugural Address. Every agent of the press connected with this shameful dereliction of duty ought to be dis-charged immediately. We have an inkling of what the President means to say, but there is hardly a single complete sentence in the entire copy before us.

The address, so far as we are able to understand it, is much more conservative than we expected. It is nothing like what was prophesied by the secession organs, and foreshadowed by sensation telegraphic dispatches. He does not intimate a determination to change the line of policy pursued by Mr. Buchanan towards the seceding States. He distinctly states that the Administration will war, the aggressive acts must come from the

Of course the address is not such an one not one of our choice. We opposed his electhe party which placed Mr. Lincoln in power. But it is a much better document than we were led to expect.

The Last Dying Agonies of a Secessionist.

The Louisville Courier of yesterday pretends to give an abstract of Lincoln's Inaugural Address. That our readers may see It is as follows :

1. He considers the Chicago platform as a "law" to his party and himself, to be carried out in its

2. He will carry out the Constitution, as his party understand it, and protect the rights of the . He wants the Fugitive Slave Law modified so as to better guard the persons of the free ne-grees in the slaveholding States.

4. He would have it provided by law, that the clause of the Constitution which guarantees that the citizens of each State shall be entitled to all the priviliges and immunities of citizens in the several States, shall be enforced. As he differs from the Dred Scott decision on this subject, he Id doubtless insist on giving the negro voter of

Massachusetts all the privileges and immunities of citizenship in Kentucky:

5. He is not willing for the policy of the Government to be fixed by the decisions of the Supreme Court, which, in matters pertaining to public affairs, he would regard as of no more authority than the opinions of six or seven able lawyers in a private statute. He does not think that the Union is dissolved, maintaining that the Confederacy is in-7. He holds that the action of the people of the secoding States is legally void and of no effect, and should not be recognized by the Federal an-

Any act of the Government of the Confederate States which may be at variance with the laws or policy of the Government at Washington will be treated as "insurrectionary and revolu-

9. Regarding the Union as unbroken, he will take care that the laws of the Government over which he presides shall be faithfully executed in

10. We will collect all duties and imposts "in

12. He would not object to amendments to the Constitution if sanctioned by the Legislatures or Conventions of twenty-seven States.

Now we undertake to say that only four of those twelve statements-the sixth, seventh ninth and twelfth-are at all justified or The latest cast was as follows: borne out by the address, as published in the Courier. And our readers will see that those three positions assumed by Mr. Lincoln are distorted by the Courier in order to inflame the public mind as much as possible. This is not our mere assertion. Theaddress is published in this paper. Let the reader compare it with the Courier's comments, and judge us accordingly.

PROGRESS OF SECESSION. -The small amount of government money stolen by the secessionists from the postoffices and custom houses does not seem to satisfy them. A brilliant genius of the secession persuasion in Florida seems to have abandoned stealing and gone to counterfeiting. He has made some United States postage stamps, and at our last advices was doing a flourishing business in that line. What next?

Amendment to the Constitution.

The following resolutions passed both the last day of the session. Their passage was regarded as a great triumph by the conservative men at Washington:

OF THE UNITED STATES. Be it resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of Amer ica in Congress assembled, two-thirds of both Houses concurring, that the following article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States, as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by hree-fourths of said Legislatures, shall be valid, to all intents and purposes, as part of

The President is and the remaining thirteen were from the free States not above named. Of the Kention, and have ever opposed the principles of tuckians, eleven are set down as Democrats and six as Republicans.

A BRIGHT Move.-A petition is being circulated in this State by a few traveling disunionists requiring the Governor to consider himself "authorized" to call a State Convention. This is on a level with other secession tactics in Kentucky. We think we see Govwhat food is necessary to keep the breath of ernor Magoffin calling a State Convention life in the loathsome carcass of secession, we by authority of a few Yancevites who want give the Courier's abstract of the address, to go to Congress. which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is is sure to regulate the Bowels. Depend upon it mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and Benefit and Health to your Infants.

We have just put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and ruth, of it, what we have never been able to say truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a sin$5,000 gle instance to effect a cure, when timely used.

5,000 Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction
5,000 delighted with its perations, and speak in terms
5,000 of the highest commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter "vehat we do know" after ten years experience and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exwhere the inlant is suncring from pain and ex-haustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILL-

Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, blood, by which this find becomes vitated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, dis-ordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. What-ever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul cor-ruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous com plaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive discourse of the liver hidrography. destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and in-vigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in

AYER'S

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is compined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, St. ANTHONY'S FIRE, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHBUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIA-TED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC. are so composed that disease within the range of heir action can rarely withstand or evade them Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at order is ealth or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Hearthurn, Headache arising from disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indicestion, Paining and Markid. Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Javudice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almos every section of country abounds in persons pub-licly known, who have been restored from alarmin and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten. be forgotten. THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek signifying "for the head," is now becoming pop-darized in connection with Mr. Spalding's grea come as common as Electrotype and many others, whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage, until they seem "native and to the manor born."

Wilson is about 26 years of age, six feet high; raw boned; weighs about 180 pounds; very dark or black hair, light beard and mustache; rather that may be looked on as a safeguard, intended to tive notice of disease which might otherwise esape attention till too late to be remedied; and its ndications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptonatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is accedingly common, and is the precursor of a reat variety of diseases, among which are Apolexy, Gout, Rheumatism, and all febrile diseases.

n its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic isease constituting bilious headache, of worms, onstipation and other disorders of the bowels, as of Rockcastle, has since fied from justice, and is well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Anæmia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently. tinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or accribity of temper. Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is se evalent, so little understood, and so much neg-cted as Costiveness. Often originating in careessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a light disorder of too little consequence to excite enxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangeras diseases, and unless early cradicated it wi ring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Amon he lighter evils of which costiveness is the usur ttendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Fou Brenth, Piles and others of like nature, while ng train of frightful diseases such as Malignar wers, Abeesses, Dysentary, Diarrhæ, Apoplexy Evers, Absesses, Dysentary, infarrine, Apolicxy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the disease named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is cradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations if follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention to the considerations of the cause is cradicated in an early stage. that the disorder should receive immediate atter tion whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insiduous approaches of di-and destroy this dangerous for to human life.
